AGRICULTURE FACTS

2016

AGRICULTURE IN IDAHO

Idaho agriculture is diverse, abundant and rooted in our history. The state has nearly 25,000 farms and ranches which produce more than 185 different commodities and the state ranks in the top ten in the nation in 30 of those commodities. Idaho is the third-largest agricultural state in the West and second in net farm income. Agriculture remains a fundamentally important part of Idaho's economy, communities and way of life. It also contributes significantly to the state's economy:

2015 Agriculture Cash Receipts: $7.5 billion
 Processed Food and Beverage Sales: $8.5 billion

From fries to cheese to wine, Idaho is producing quality products to feed the world and fuel our state. Together, agriculture and food processing generates 21% of Idaho's total economic output in sales and 16% of GDP.

Idaho grows 70% of the hybrid temperate sweet corn seed produced globally and ranks among the leading suppliers of alfalfa, field bean, garden bean, and Kentucky bluegrass seed in the nation.

Idaho vegetable seed production also includes carrot, onion, turnip, lettuce and many more.

Idaho's growing wine and viticulture industry is also gaining recognition.

Idaho now has three American Viticulture Areas (AVA):

- Snake River Valley AVA - Approved 2007
- Eagle Foothills AVA - Approved 2015
- Lewis-Clark AVA - Approved 2016
