Provide a short summary of the changes this rule makes: Changes to the rule will update the incorporated by referenced AAPFCO Official Publication Merck Index and the AOAC Official Methods of Analysis to reference the most current edition and will update the rule to remove duplicate language between the rule text and the incorporated by reference publications to comply with Gov. Little's Executive Order 2019-02, Red Tape Reduction Act..
Why is this rule needed? What prompted this request? IDAPA 02.06.41 incorporates by reference the AAPFCO Official Publication, Merck Index and the AOAC Official Methods of Analysis. The changes to the rule will change the references from the previous editions to the most current editions and will update standards, ingredients and definitions to make them congruent with the new publications. Changes will also be made to the rule to remove duplicate language in the rule where the language already exists in the publications incorporated by reference.
List any affected parties and potential concerns they may have with this rule. How will the agency involve these parties in the negotiated rulemaking process? The parties of interest to this rule include members of the commercial soil and plant amendment industry. The ISDA will hold negotiated rulemaking meetings with a scheduled location and time to allow for party participation and will reach out to all contacts with registered soil and plant amendment products in Idaho as well as industry groups and representatives notifying them of the meeting time and place. The ISDA will also publish notice of these meetings with email and phone contact information made available in order to receive input from interested parties who may not be able to attend the scheduled meeting in person.

Provide the projected fiscal impact for all programs affected, including both positive and negative impacts to all fund sources (General, dedicated and federal):

The ISDA does not anticipate any fiscal impact to either general fund or dedicated funds.

What impact will this rule have on the competitiveness of businesses and individuals?

The changes to this rule will provide updated terms, definitions and standards to ensure producers and distributors do not encounter changing standards from state to state when producing and distributing product in Idaho and nationwide.
