AGENDA ITEMS

WELCOME

Jared Stuart convened the meeting at 9 am. After introductions, Lloyd Knight explained that all three rules being negotiated today are similar in that they incorporate by reference an official publication that has common and accepted regulations for feed, fertilizer, or soil and plant amendments. Historically the three rules included sections that are included in the publications. However with the Red Tape Reductions, the staff has identified duplicated information that will be struck from the rules. Each year to update the incorporations by reference the rules are opened. Jared Stuart stated that this comparison of duplications started a year ago.

Jared Stuart identified the sections that will be eliminated from IDAPA 02.06.02:

- Section 011. Exemptions which are spelled out in Section 25-2707 and 2708 of Idaho Code;
- Section 050.01(c) Label Format that is included in the AAFCO manual;
- Most of Sub-section 100 Brand and Product Names that are included in the AAFCO manual;
- Sub-sections 150.04, 150.05, and 150.06 that are included in the AAFCO manual;
- Sections 200 and 250 that are included in the AAFCO manual; and
- All of Section 475 that is included in the AAFCO manual.

Jared Stuart also explained that by eliminating this material from the rule, it will be easier to keep the rule accurate and up to date.

Colby Cameron stated that the department could develop a shorter interpretation of the changes made to the manual to help those involved with the rule.

Jared Stuart adjourned the meeting at 9:20 am.
